

XTMAS SERVICES TO BE HELD TOMORROW

Most Churches Advance Christmas Programs Day Earlier Than Usual.

SPECIAL MUSIC FOR ALL

Some Congregations, However, Arrange Observances for Sunday and Monday.

Christmas hymns and carols will be sung in practically every Washington church tomorrow in the special Christmas musical services which have been arranged. The majority of churches have decided to hold their Christmas services tomorrow, instead of on Christmas Day, Monday. The fact that Sunday is Christmas Eve has hastened this decision. Many churches, however, will hold regular services tomorrow and special Christmas services Monday.

The Eckington Presbyterian Church, North Capitol street and Florida avenue northwest, has announced the following program: "Christmas Carol," Wambold; "Peace on Earth," Judson; "There Were Shepherds," Vincent; "When Christ Was Born," Kevin; "O, Quiet Night," Neidinger; "The Star," Hall, and solo by James L.
